LEGACY

Shykam Exim is born out of a 70 year old cotton trade family legacy. Our partner, Mr. Shyam Makharia is amongst the most senior directors of the Cotton Association of India (CAI) and Mr. Alok Makharia is a post graduate from University of Wales, UK.

As a boutique cotton house, we go the extra distance to provide personalized, multi-disciplinary services that cater to the specific needs of buyers & sellers, which have helped build on our carefully crafted business relationships over time.

EXPORTERS

We can arrange new Indian cotton varieties along with the wide range of existing ones at the best export price. By suitably acting as liasoning agents of government bodies, co-operative societies and other institutions / leading ginning mills selling cotton, we procure staple group wise classifications and specifications of cotton in-line with your needs.

Further, our setup allows for execution of customized cotton services, which include cotton selecting, controlling, supervising and forwarding.

DOMESTIC SUPPLY

As your trusted suppliers we have developed good relationships with the better ginners and supply sources from Maharashtra, MP, Karnataka and other cotton states to ensure that you get the right quality of all cottons including ELS at the best market prices each time. Besides, we provide the latest market information to our esteemed clients.

Our extended trade network developed over decades, attention to detail & personalized services help us promote 'The Best Cotton Practices'
